

TEMPORARY TREND

If you love changing your home's decor on a whim, get stuck into the latest removable decals and wallpaper

1. MAE WALL DECALS

Mae's fabric decals are PVC-free, biodegradable and come in sweet pastel shades in an innovative range of designs, including cute messages, animals and the alphabet. 'Sweet Nothings' fabric decals, $64.95/430mm x 380mm sheet of mixed fabric decals, Mae, lovemae.com.

2. WALL ALLURE

Wall decals are an instant room update, and the newest designs incorporate everything from wall hooks to blackboard surfaces. Wall Allure's range is designed and made in Australia, and can be stuck to virtually any clean, smooth surface. 'Dala Horses' wall decal, $27/set of 3, Wall Allure, wallallure.com.

3. THE WALLSTICKER COMPANY

Sweet wallpaper 'stickers' from Melbourne stylist Clair Wayman are both removable and reusable, and come in a range of prints. 'Curio & Curio' wallpaper in Herringbone (left) and Robin & Palm (right), $140 for two 65cm x 250cm panels, The Wallsticker Company, thewallstickercompany.com.au.

BOTTLED UP

Ofess's 'Isabella', from $29.95, looks like an aluminium drink bottle but is actually an umbrella in disguise. Available in a range of colours, including Lime and Black. Find it at outliving.com.au.

high tea

If you're looking for an excuse to down tools and flick on the kettle, may we suggest Muuto's new 'Bulky' tea collection by Jonas Wagell. These porcelain pieces come in pure White, sultry Grey or playful Yellow and are sold individually. Tea pot, $139, tea cups, $59/two, cookie jar, $79, sugar bowl, $59, milk jug, $69. Visit Forest For The Trees at forestfft.com.au.